SEC SOFTBALL TOURNAMENT 2014

In its 23 seasons of existence, the Georgia softball program has made noise across the collegiate softball landscape. From four Women's College World Series appearances to three Southeastern Conference titles, Georgia has established itself a winning tradition.

Since the inaugural season in 1997, Georgia has accumulated 1,017 wins, including 344 in SEC action. A majority of those wins have come under the helm of Lu Harris-Champer, who has collected 902 in her 19 years in the Classic City. The Bulldogs have had 40-win seasons in 17 of the 19 years under Harris-Champer, including seven of those with 50 or more victories.

The winning doesn't stop when the regular season ends, but carries on into postseason action. Hot bats and clutch pitching propelled Georgia to a second-place finishes in the SEC and trips to the Women's College World Series in 2009 and 2010. In 2014, the Bulldogs brought home the SEC Tournament crown after defeating Kentucky in the Championship Game. The team chemistry of the 2016 squad carried the Bulldogs to Oklahoma City. For the second time in three seasons, Georgia appeared in OKC in 2018, sweeping its way through the Athens Regional and Super Regional in 2018.

The past 18 years have seen Georgia in an NCAA Regional while appearing in 10 Super Regionals, with 69 wins in the program's NCAA Championship history.

With the 2020 season here, there may be a new squad in Athens, but the goals remain the same, and Georgia won't be quieting down any time soon.

POSTSEASON STAPLE

Georgia's winning tradition doesn't just stem from the Bulldogs accomplishments in regular-season games, but from what it has achieved when those are over.

The Bulldogs have made themselves a mainstay in NCAA Championship action, making it to an NCAA Regional in each of the past 18 seasons. Its stellar track record in the postseason puts Georgia as one of 14 teams in the nation to appear in a Regional for 18 or more straight years. Within that realm, Georgia is one of three Southeastern Conference teams to produce such success.

Georgia isn't just a staple in Regional fields, but also into the next round, appearing in 10 Super Regionals since 2005.

The pinnacle of college softball is in Oklahoma City, and Georgia made back-to-back showings at the Women's College World Series in 2009 and 2010, finishing as one of the last four teams standing in both. The Bulldogs returned in 2016 after knocking off back-to-back National Champion Florida in dramatic walk-off fashion in the Super Regional. After sweeping the NCAA Regional and Super Regional in Athens, the Bulldogs punched their ticket to OKC in 2018 for the fourth program appearance at the WCWS.

The consistency that the Bulldogs have shown reaching postseason play has planted the program as one of the top teams in NCAA softball.

2009 2010 2016 2018

BULLDOGS IN THE PROS

Former Bulldogs have made their presence known in the professional world, helping to grow the game across the nation. Overall, 18 Bulldogs have gone on to play ball after their collegiate career. Since 2007, 14 Georgia players have been selected in the National Pro Fastpitch Draft.

In the 2019 season, Georgia had three past athletes represented on an NPF roster. Kristyn Sandberg along with Alyssa DiCarlo teamed up with Georgia assistant coach Rachele Fico on the Chicago Bandits, who finished runners-up in the Championship Series.

All-NPF outfielder Megan Wiggins' ninth season in the league was spent with the USSSA Pride. Wiggins helped guide the Pride to a Cowles Cup Championship over the Bandits for the second season in a row. Following the 2018 season, Wiggins was invited to the USA Softball Women's National Team Trials in early January.

Infielder Alyssa DiCarlo became the latest ProDawg after being drafted by the Bandits as the fourth-overall pick in the draft. DiCarlo appeared in 32 games, hitting .274 with a .479 slugging percentage as a rookie. She knocked three home runs with six doubles in 2019.

After two years in the NPF, infielder Alex Hugo guided the USA Baseball Women's National Team to a gold medal at the COPABE Women's Pan-American Championships in 2019. Hugo was named the MVP and later USA Baseball Sportswoman of the Year after leading Team USA in six offensive categories en route to the gold medal.

JACK TURNER STADIUM

The Georgia softball team plays in a multi-million dollar softball stadium. The main grandstand holds approximately 1,400 fans while additional outfield seating was added in 2015. Jack Turner Stadium, named for the late Jack Turner, thanks in part to gifts from himself and his son Jimmy Turner, has been chosen to host 10 NCAA Regionals and five NCAA Super Regionals since the format began in 2006.

Both the Georgia and visiting team dugouts are connected via tunnel from the locker rooms. The Bulldogs' locker room area has all facilities located in it, including an athletic training room, players' lounge, game room, locker room, showers, as well as the coaches' offices and locker room. On the first base side, the visiting team has its locker room and showers along with the umpires' locker room. A state-of-the-art press box was built featuring suites for radio, television, media, and athletic administration. Georgia's stadium ranks among the nation's best and will continue to be an attractive site for NCAA postseason play for years to come.

JACK TURNER

Jack Turner was named to the University of Georgia Foundation Board of Trustees in 1999 where he served as a member of the Investment Committee. He graduated from the University of Georgia in 1953 with a Bachelor's of Business Administration in Finance and was a member of Chi Psi fraternity, the Air Force ROTC, and Gridiron. As an athlete, he was a letterman in both baseball and basketball.

Following graduation, he served as a pilot in the U.S. Air Force, and after serving his country, embarked on a professional career in the financial services industry. Jack was president and retired as chairman of the board of American Funds Distributors, a subsidiary of the American Funds Group, based in Los Angeles in 1995.

What followed could not be characterized as a "quiet retirement." Jack dedicated much of his retirement years to the University of Georgia. His service included: Director of the Georgia Student Educational Fund (the forerunner to today's William C. Hartman Fund); Executive Committee member and director of the National Alumni Association; Member on the board of the UGA Athletic Association; Chairman of the UGA Athletic Association Finance Committee; Chairman of the UGA Athletic Association Facilities Committee; Chairman of the Georgia Athletic Association Student Athletic Scholarship Endowment Fund (through which Jack has endowed several scholarships); Founding member and partner in the President's Club; Member of the Heritage Society.

In addition, Jack founded the Turner Family Foundation, a private organization that supports local charities. In 1999, he was honored by the National Football Hall of Fame for his outstanding support of amateur football, and in 2002 was part of the inaugural class of inductees to the UGA Athletic Association's "Circle of Honor," honoring his service to the organization. The Terry College of Business honored him in 2002 as a "Distinguished Alumni" for his longtime service to the school.

THE UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

"Something for everyone." That's one way to describe the academic, athletic, and social experience at the University of Georgia. UGA is a leader among public universities nationally with a breadth and diversity of degree programs that rival any institution of higher learning. Various degree programs such as education, business, international affairs, journalism, math and public administration rank among the best in the nation. With its top-notch facilities campus-wide, the University of Georgia is an ideal setting for anyone to pursue a world-class education.

The University of Georgia is the birthplace of public higher education in the USA. On January 27, 1785--just two years after the Revolutionary War and still four years before George Washington's inauguration as our first President--the Georgia Legislature adopted the charter that created the University of Georgia, making UGA the oldest chartered state university in the nation. More than 225 years later, Georgia still offers something for everyone.

THE CITY OF ATHENS

Universally known as one of the nation's premier college towns, Athens is the perfect marriage of campus and community. Broad Street is all that separates the University of Georgia's historic North Campus and a vibrant downtown community filled with restaurants and shopping. Athens has carved its own identity with the individualistic pursuits of a music scene that has turned local artists into worldwide superstars.

Athens' ever-thriving music scene fostered world-wide megabands such as R.E.M. and the B-52s. Historic venues such as the Georgia Theatre and the 40-Watt Club make Athens a must-stop for a wide variety of emerging and established stars from Taylor Swift to Snoop Dogg.

2020 SEASON OUTLOOK

The 2020 season will be the 24th edition of Georgia softball in the Classic City. The Bulldogs enter the 2020 campaign with a chip on their shoulder after ending 2019 in the Regional round of the NCAA Tournament.

Georgia drew a tough slate in the NCAA Regional in 2019. Minnesota ended Georgia's hopes of advancing farther in the postseason, far short of the Bulldogs' expectations.

The 2020 campaign is highlighted by a strong senior class that has played a lot of innings in the Red and Black. Experience will be a strength of the 2020 Bulldogs, led by the experiences of the senior class. The class of 2020 has gone 125-55 in their first three seasons including three-straight Regional appearances and a trip to the Women's College World Series.

The seven-member class features a trio of pitchers and four position players. Mary Wilson Avant has made 84 appearances in the circle in three seasons, including 47 starts. She will be backed up on the pitching staff by Alley Cutting and Amanda Ablan. Cutting, who transferred to UGA prior to the start of the 2019 season, saw significant time in the circle last season for the Bulldogs.

In the field, Georgia is led by four veteran seniors. 2019 All-SEC performer Ciara Bryan looks to hold down her place in centerfield. Bryan had her best season with a bat in 2019, knocking 11 home runs with 36 RBI. Infielders Justice Milz and Jordan Doggett not only flashed the leather on defense last season, but also contributed heavily to the offensive output for the Bulldogs. Behind the plate will be Mahelna O'Neal. O'Neal enters her senior season carrying a .996 career fielding percentage.

The junior class features eight members who add depth to each position in the Georgia order. Right-handed pitcher Lauren Mathis, who made 11 starts in 24 appearances in the circle last season, looks to be a big contributor this season. Tyler Armistead mostly came off the bench the first half of the season but then earned a starting role in left field midway through SEC play. Armistead showed rapid growth both in her defense and at the plate as the season progressed. Jessica Morgan saw a good amount of time behind the plate, sharing catching duties with O'Neal, while also making a handful of starts as the designated player in 2019. Transfers Jacqui Switzer (Florida) and Mackenzie Puckett (Florida State) will look to bolster the Bulldogs lineup in the outfield and infield, respectively.

Maturing from freshmen a season ago to sophomores in 2020, Lacey Fincher, Savana Sikes, and CJ Landrum will all look to pick up where they left off in 2019. Fincher earned Freshman All-SEC Team honors after hitting .318 with nine home runs and 32 RBI as a rookie. Landrum's speed not only on the base paths but also in the outfield added a needed component to the top of Georgia's lineup in 2019. Sikes began the season manning second base before moving over to patrol the hot corner two-thirds of the way into the season. Sikes only committed five errors as a freshman on the infield and also provided clutch pop in the lineup, hitting eight home runs while driving in 49 runners.

A total of five freshmen grace the roster in 2020. Redshirts Jaiden Fields (utility) and Laura Bishop (RHP) enrolled in January 2019 and spent last season practicing and learning with the team. True freshmen infielders Sydney Kuma and Sara Mosley join pitcher Shelby Maier in Athens for their rookie campaigns. All three look to make an impact in 2020.

2020 SCHEDULE

Georgia's 2020 schedule features 56 games total, including 38 to be played at Jack Turner Softball Stadium. A total of 15 teams on the schedule played in the 2019 NCAA Tournament, of which seven advanced to a Super Regional, and three appeared in the Women's College World Series.

Georgia will travel to Clearwater, Florida for the Second Annual ESPN Elite Invitational Feb. 12-14. The Bulldogs will take on top programs including Kansas, Northwestern, Texas Tech, defending national champions UCLA, and South Florida.

A midweek with rival Georgia Tech in the Classic City on Mar. 4 will predate the start of Southeastern Conference play when Georgia hosts South Carolina Mar. 6-8. Other home SEC series will include Auburn (Mar. 20-22), Kentucky (Apr. 4-6), and Mississippi State (Apr. 17-19).

Georgia will travel to four SEC opponents including Arkansas (Mar. 13-15), LSU (Mar. 27-29), Texas A&M (Apr. 8-10), and Florida (Apr. 24-26).

Other home midweek matchups include Furman (Mar. 11), Oklahoma State (Mar. 18), USC Upstate (Mar. 25), and Georgia State (Apr. 15).

The SEC Tournament will be held May 6-10 at Rhoads Stadium in Tuscaloosa

HEAD COACH

LU HARRIS-CHAMPER

24th SEASON OVERALL (1,111-404-1)
20th SEASON AT GEORGIA (902-340)

Lu Harris-Champer has become the architect of Georgia softball, building the Bulldogs into a nationally-recognized, championship-caliber program. Entering her 20th year at the helm in the 2020 season, Harris-Champer has guided Georgia to 18-straight NCAA Tournament appearances, two Southeastern Conference Championships, one SEC Tournament Championship, 10 NCAA Super Regional showings, and four trips to the Women's College World Series, including two trips in the last four seasons.

Harris-Champer is 902-340 in her time with the Bulldogs which includes a 306-197 record in the SEC. She has also established Georgia as one of the elite programs in the nation. Under her guidance, Georgia has had 30 NFCA All-Americans, 13 Easton All-Americans, 74 All-SEC recognitions, 72 NFCA All-Region selections, 21 SEC All-Tournament honorees, 29 SEC Players of the Week, 26 SEC Pitchers of the Week, 21 SEC Freshmen of the Week, one SEC Player of the Year, two SEC Pitchers of the Year, one SEC Freshman of the Year, and has been named the SEC Coach of the Year three times, most recently in 2018.

Under her leadership, Georgia has been equally impressive off of the field. In her 18 seasons at the helm, Georgia has had three CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, 12 CoSIDA Academic All-District selection, 138 members of the SEC Academic Honor Roll, 38 members of the SEC First-Year Academic Honor Roll, 16 players named to the SEC Community Service Team and 10 student-athletes inducted into the UGA Student-Athlete Leadership Academy.

Georgia notched its 18th-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance in 2019 and finished the season 42-19 overall, the 17th 40-win season by the Bulldogs. 2019 was the final season for slugger Alyssa DiCarlo, who earned All-America status for the second-straight season. DiCarlo was drafted by the Chicago Bandits as the fourth-overall pick of the NPF Draft, becoming the second-highest pick for a Bulldog since Taylor Schlopy (second overall) in 2011. DiCarlo also shattered Georgia's career records for home runs, RBI, extra-base hits, and total bases. Along with DiCarlo, Ciara Bryan and Lacey Fincher earned All-SEC honors in 2019. The 2019 campaign also saw Georgia record the 1,000th victory in the program history, over 900 of which belong to Harris-Champer.

The 2018 season saw Georgia finish with 48 wins and culminated with the Bulldogs' fourth trip to the Women's College World Series in Oklahoma City. The NCAA Tournament was Georgia's 17th-consecutive appearance under Harris-Champer. The roster featured NFCA All-Americans in outfielder Cortni Emanuel, shortstop Alysa DiCarlo, and pitcher Brittany Gray. Georgia claimed four All-SEC Team spots and posted seven to the NFCA All-Southeast Region Team. Emanuel and DiCarlo were each named Top 25 finalists for the USA Softball National Player of the Year award. At the end of the season, Emanuel was named the recipient of the New Balance Golden Shoe award, given to the top base stealer in the country.

The regular season saw Georgia open the season 26-1 including a 25-game winning streak, tying a program record. In conference play, Georgia won nine series including series against No. 2 Florida, No. 7 Tennessee, and No. 17 Alabama. The Bulldogs, the No. 7 national seed in the NCAA Tournament, swept their way to a trip to OKC with wins over Harvard and Northwestern in the Athens Regional and a sweep of Tennessee in the Athens Super Regional.

Statistically in 2018, Georgia finished third in the country with a .333 team batting average, fourth with a .526 slugging percentage, 10th with a .404 on base clip, and 14th in scoring (5.97 runs/game). In the circle, the Bulldogs pitching staff finished 13th nationally with a 1.86 team ERA. Individually, Brittany Gray led the nation with a 0.48 ERA in her senior campaign.

Harris-Champer became a member of an elite group of collegiate head softball coaches on Feb. 25, 2017 when she recorded her 1,000th-career victory with a 6-4 win over Cal State-Fullerton in her home state of California.

In 2017, the Bulldogs punched their ticket to Georgia's 16th-consecutive NCAA Tournament, earning a trip to the Regional final against host Florida State. The 2017 season saw the Bulldogs win the team batting title in the SEC with a .338 average and finishing with the fifth-best clip in the country. Three Bulldogs were honored as All-SEC including All-American outfielder Cortni Emanuel.

Outfielder Sydni Emanuel became the latest ProDawg when she was drafted by the Akron Racers as a the 16th overall pick of the 2017 National Pro Fastpitch Draft.

The 2016 season was a magical one for Georgia softball and Harris-Champer, as the season ended within the program's third appearance at the Women's College World Series. After an early exit in the SEC Tournament, the Bulldogs entered postseason with a vengeance, taking the crown at the Athens Regional before bouncing back-to-back national champion Florida with a shutout win in game one and a Kaylee Puailoa walk-off home run in game two to secure their spot in Oklahoma City.

At season's end, Georgia had a 46-20 record, including 12-12 in SEC play. Eight Bulldogs hit over .300 for the year, guiding the team to a program-best .342 batting average. Tina Iosefa set an SEC and school record for most RBI in a season with 87 on her way to earning NFCA All-America honors. Four student-athletes garnered NFCA All-Region awards while seven made it to an All-SEC Team, including freshman Alyssa DiCarlo to the first team as she posted 63 RBI for the year, the most of any freshman in the NCAA.

Harris-Champer and Georgia finished the 2015 season with an overall record of 44-17 that included a 14-9 mark in the SEC. Following the regular season, the Bulldogs earned the No. 14 seed in the NCAA Tournament where the team fought its way back from a 14-inning loss to WKU to win the next three games, outscoring its opponents 35-8. As a team offensively, Georgia set several program records. The 2015 hitters posted program-best marks in batting average (.343), runs scored (440) and on-base percentage (.420). The 554 hits were the fourth most in program-history and the most since 2006, while the 380 RBI was the second-highest mark in school history and the best since 2011. The pitching staff finished with its lowest ERA since 2012.

In addition to the team accomplishments, the Bulldogs had several players earn individual awards. Alex Hugo and Cortni Emanuel highlighted the award season, as each earned NFCA All-America honors. Emanuel was also a top-10 finalist for the USA Softball Freshman of the Year. Georgia put seven players on the NFCA All-Region team and had five All-SEC selections.

In her 14th season with the Bulldogs, Harris-Champer led the team to unprecedented heights when the team won the 2014 SEC Tournament. The Bulldogs beat eventual national champion Florida and national runner-up Alabama in the tournament before handing Kentucky a 5-2 loss to claim the title. It was the first-ever tournament title for the Bulldogs. With the win, Georgia earned a berth to the NCAA Tournament for the 13th time. The SEC Tournament title propelled the team to a No. 4 national seed, allowing it to host both the Regional and Super Regional. Georgia finished the year with a 49-15 record that included a 15-9 mark in SEC play. In addition to the team successes, Harris-Champer coached several players to individual honors. Hugo, the 2014 NCAA Home Run Champion, was named a First Team NFCA All-American, to the All-SEC First Team, the All-SEC Tournament Team and the All-Southeast Region team. Chelsea Wilkinson was recognized as a Second Team All-American, the SEC Tournament MVP, a member of the All-Southeast Region Team, the All-SEC team and was named the SEC Pitcher of the Week twice. Additionally, Paige Wilson was an All-Southeast Region selection and named to the All-SEC and SEC All-Tournament team. In all, the Bulldogs had seven members named to the All-Southeast Region team, as Tina Iosefa, Geri Ann Glasco, Samantha LaZear and Anna Swafford each earned the honor.

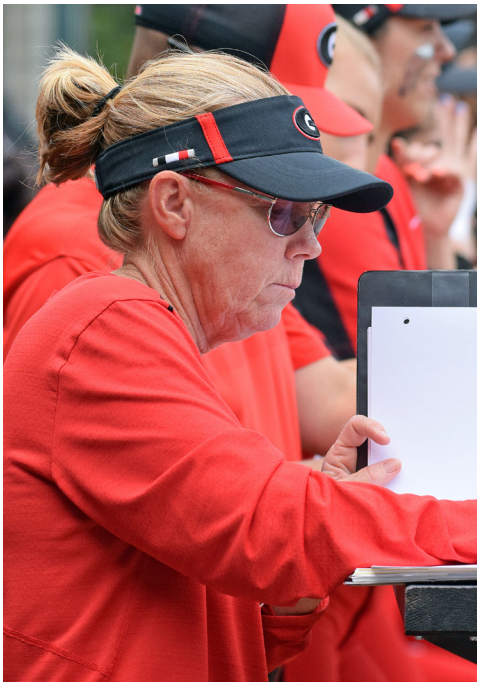
In 2013, Harris-Champer led Georgia to its 12th NCAA Tournament. The 2013 Bulldogs finished the season with a 40-21 record that included a 14-9 mark in the SEC, seven wins over teams ranked in the top-25, sweeps of four SEC series and a two-game sweep of Georgia Tech. Harris-Champer coached four players to All-SEC honors, as Wilson and Kaylee Puailoa were each named First Team All-SEC and Glasco, Puailoa, and Wilkinson earned a spot on the SEC All-Freshman Team. Glasco was named the SEC Co-Freshman of the Year, marking the first time in program history that a Georgia player received Freshman of the Year honors.



Wilson and Wilkinson were also named to the SEC All-Tournament team. In addition to All-SEC honors, Puailoa, Glasco, and Wilson were also named the NFCA All-Region Teams, with Glasco going on to earn Third Team NFCA All-America honors.

The 2012 season marked the 11th time that Harris-Champer has led a Bulldog softball squad to the NCAA postseason and the sixth time that Georgia advanced to a NCAA Super Regional. With a record of 45-17 that included a 17-11 mark in the SEC, the 2012 squad spent the majority of the season ranked among the top-15 teams in the nation and earned 13 wins over team ranked in the top-25. In the NCAA Tournament, Georgia was awarded the 10th overall national seed. The Bulldogs swept the NCAA Athens Regional field, marking the sixth time that the team has claimed a regional title and advanced to the Knoxville Super Regional. Harris-Champer coached Kristyn Sandberg to First Team All-SEC honors, while Erin Arevalo was named to the All-SEC second team and Paige Wilson earned a spot on the SEC All-Freshman team. In addition to conference honors, Sandberg and Arevalo earned All-American status, with Sandberg appearing on the second team and Arevalo earning a spot on the third team.

Harris-Champer's 2011 team posted a 51-14 overall record and advancing to the NCAA Super Regional round of play. In SEC play, the Bulldogs went 17-9 and finished third in the Eastern Division and also made a run to the championship game in the SEC Tournament. Georgia spent four weeks during the 2011 season ranked No. 1 in the USA Today/National Fastpitch Coaches Association poll and one week atop the ESPN.com/USA Softball poll, which marked the first No. 1 rankings in school history. Harris-Champer led three Bulldogs to All-American honors, as Alisa Goler and Megan Wiggins were selected to the Louisville Slugger/NFCA All-America Second Team. Goler and Taylor Schlopy were named Lowe's Senior CLASS All-Americans, while Goler was a Top 25 Finalist for the USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Award.

In 2010, Harris-Champer's Georgia squad posted a 50-13 overall record, advancing to the WCWS where they went 2-2 and reached the final four. In SEC play, the Bulldogs went 18-8 and finished second in the Eastern Division. In the final rankings of the 2010 season, the Bulldogs were ranked No. 3 in the USA Today/NFCA poll and No. 4 in the ESPN.com/USA Softball poll. Under Harris-Champer's guidance, Goler and Schlopy earned second-team Louisville Slugger/NFCA All-America honors, while Schlopy also garnered ESPN.com All-America recognition and was named a top-25 finalist for the 2010 USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Award.

In 2009, Harris-Champer's Bulldogs were tabbed the Easton Sports, Inc., Team of the Year after going 47-12 and advancing to their first-ever Women's College World Series appearance, where they went 3-2 and were one of the final four teams standing. The Bulldogs finished the year with NCAA statistics rankings of first in fielding percentage (.981), second in slugging percentage (.574), fourth in home runs per game (1.44), sixth in scoring (6.32 runs per game), and 10th in batting average (.319). In SEC play, the Bulldogs went 18-7 to finish second in the Eastern Division and third overall. Georgia tied for the league lead in triples with 17 and its national-leading fielding percentage was the third-best in SEC history. Georgia finished the season ranked fourth in both the USA Today/NFCA and ESPN.com/USA Softball final polls. Goler and Schlopy were named First Team All-Americans. Goler was also a USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year top 10 finalist, and Schlopy was chosen to the USA Softball Japan Cup Team and helped the Americans win Gold.

In 2008, the Georgia softball program finished with an overall record of 46-24, an SEC mark of 14-14 (3rd Eastern Division) and advanced to the Super Regional round of the NCAA Softball Championship. With an 18-player roster consisting of fifty percent freshmen and 12 underclassmen, the prospect of what to expect from the onset of the season was uncertain. The Bulldogs finished the season ranked No. 17 by USA Today/NFCA and No. 18 by ESPN.com/USA Softball. Harris-Champer recorded and surpassed 600 collegiate career coaching victories in 2008 as well as achieving and surpassing 400 wins at Georgia in her eight seasons with the team.

The Bulldogs concluded their 2007 campaign with an appearance in the championship game of the NCAA Lincoln Regional. The Bulldogs posted a 46-28 overall record and a 13-15 mark in conference action. Kellie Middleton became a two-time All-American after earning Second Team honors from Easton, which marked the sixth-consecutive year in which a Bulldog earned All-America honors.

Harris-Champer and the Bulldogs captured their third SEC Eastern Division title en route to posting its fifth-consecutive season of 54 or more wins in 2006. Overall, UGA tallied a 54-15 record and earned a berth in the NCAA Regionals. Harris-Champer secured her 500th career win on April 2, with a victory over Ole Miss. At the conclusion of the season, Georgia also set a school record after three student-athletes (Kellie Middleton, Jessica Doucette and Megan McAllister) earned All-America distinctions in 2006.

The 2005 season proved to be a record-setting campaign for the Bulldogs as they earned their second conference championship in three years while appearing in the championship game of an NCAA Super Regional. Under the direction of Harris-Champer, Georgia posted a 26-4 record in SEC play, tying the second-best mark in conference history. Michelle Green and Kim Wendland were named Louisville Slugger/NFCA and Easton All-Americans at the conclusion of the 2005 season. Harris-Champer tallied her second SEC Coach of the Year honor as well.

The Bulldogs concluded the 2004 season with an appearance in the championship game of a NCAA Regional. The Bulldogs finished the season in the top-20 in several national statistics, including a third-place finish in team batting average (.329), sixth-place ranking in fielding percentage (.974), and a seventh-place finish in runs per game (5.72).

In 2003, the Bulldogs clinched the program's first SEC crown and earned its second-consecutive appearance in the NCAA Regionals, capturing two wins in the tournament. At the conclusion of the 2003 season, the Bulldogs led the SEC in 18 categories and were second in five more. Georgia tied two NCAA records, four SEC records, and established 35 new Georgia records.

Harris-Champer took Georgia to its first-ever NCAA Softball Tournament in 2002, compiling a 59-17 record. The 59 wins ranked as the second-best in the nation in 2002. Harris-Champer and the Bulldogs started their season with a 24-game winning streak. By the end of the regular season, Georgia had finished second in both the Southeastern Conference Eastern Division and the Conference Tournament. Nicole Barber and Kim Wendland became Georgia's first two All-Americans in softball and were also named First Team All-SEC. Barber became the NCAA record holder for consecutive steals with 73.

In 2001, Harris-Champer helped Georgia to a 33-win season while setting several team records along the way. She also picked up sweeps against Georgia Tech and Florida, and taking two of three from Tennessee.

Prior to her time at Georgia, Harris-Champer spent three seasons as the head coach at Southern Miss where she led the Lady Eagles to two Women's College World Series appearances. For her efforts in the 1999 season, Harris-Champer was named the 1999 South Region Coach of the Year. In addition to her honors, Southern Miss pitcher Courtney Blades won the 2000 Honda Broderick Award as the nation's top player.

In 1997, Harris-Champer served as head coach of the Orlando Wahoos of the Women's Pro Fastpitch League. She led Orlando to a 60-13 record and earned Coach of the Year honors after guiding her team to regular-season and tournament titles.

Harris-Champer was head coach at Nicholls State in 1996 and 1997, leading the school to impressive records of 46-19-1 and 48-23, respectively. She also helped the team to a pair of NCAA Regional berths, a Southland Conference regular-season and tournament championship, as well as the finals of the NCAA Regional. Harris-Champer was tabbed 1996 Southland Conference and South Region Coach of the Year and finished third in National Coach of the Year balloting.

Prior to her stint at Nicholls, Harris-Champer spent five years as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Western Illinois. During that span, the Westerwinds were 156-98, won the 1992 Gateway Conference tournament, the 1993 Mid-Continent Conference regular-season and tournament crowns and the 1996 Mid-Continent Conference West Division title.

A native of San Diego, California, Harris-Champer played three seasons at Western Illinois after transferring from Mesa (Calif.) Community College. She is married to Jerry Champer, the Associate Head Coach for the seven-time national champion Georgia swimming and diving team.

Lu and Jerry have three children: Twins Jenna & Emma, born Aug. 2, 2004, and Mya, born May 23, 2006.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

TONY BALDWIN

SIXTH SEASON | BUTLER, 1995

After serving as a Georgia volunteer assistant from 2011-12, Tony Baldwin rejoined the Bulldog coaching staff as an assistant coach in June 2014 before being promoted to associate head coach shortly after the 2016 season. Baldwin will be in his sixth season in Athens entering the 2020 campaign.

Georgia's offense has found successful production since Baldwin's arrival. The 2019 season saw the end of Alyssa DiCarlo's career. Under Baldwin's mentorship, DiCarlo went down as one of the best hitters in Georgia softball history. DiCarlo shattered Georgia's career records for home runs, RBI, extra-base hits, and total bases while appearing in the top 10 in numerous other offensive categories. She earned All-America status for the second season in a row in 2019. DiCarlo was drafted as the fourth-overall pick in the NPF Draft to the Chicago Bandits. Junior outfielder Ciara Bryan and freshman first baseman Lacey Fincher earned All-SEC honors for their efforts at the plate.

Following the 2019 season, Baldwin had the honor of working with the USA Softball U-19 team over the summer as an assistant coach. The U-19 WNT brought home the bronze medal at the USA Softball International Cup. USA concluded its summer by walking off Japan to win the 2019 World Baseball Softball Confederation (WBSC) U-19 Women's Softball World Cup. With the win, Team USA became the first team in history to win three consecutive U-19 World Cup Titles and has seven titles overall.

The 2018 season was one of the best offensive seasons for Georgia. The Bulldogs posted the third-best batting average in the country with a .333 clip. It was the second-straight season the Bulldogs won the SEC team batting title. Georgia ranked fourth in the NCAA with a .526 slugging percentage and 10th with a .404 on-base clip. Many Bulldogs shined in 2018 at the plate including leadoff hitter Cortni Emanuel (.431 average) who ranked second in the nation with 91 hits. DiCarlo blasted 21 home runs to rank sixth nationally while driving in a seventh-best 67 runs. Both Emanuel and DiCarlo were top-25 finalists for the USA Softball Player of the Year award and each earned NFCA All-American status. Emanuel was also named the recipient of the New Balance/NFCA Golden Shoe Award, given to the most prolific base stealer in the country. Emanuel was the 23rd pick of the NPF Draft by the USSSA Pride, becoming the 13th Bulldog selected in the draft. The Bulldogs concluded the 2018 campaign by making their fourth program appearance at the Women's College World Series in Oklahoma City.

The 2017 season saw the Bulldogs win the SEC team batting title with a .338 batting average, 22 points higher than second-place Tennessee. That figure ranked fifth-best in the country. Sydni and Cortni Emanuel concluded the season as top-four hitters in the conference, finishing with .436 and .426 batting averages respectively. The sisters' 2017 batting average rank fourth and fifth in Georgia's single-season top-10 list. Sydni became the latest ProDawg when she was drafted by the Akron Racers as the 16th-overall pick of the National Pro Fastpitch Draft. Cortni was named an NFCA All-American for the second-straight season in 2017.

In 2016, Georgia had its second-best batting average in school history, hitting .342 with eight Bulldogs holding a .300 or better average on its way to the program's third Women's College World Series appearance. After a tough offseason of individual work with Baldwin, many individuals put up stellar numbers. Tina Iosefa led the nation while breaking the SEC record with 87 RBI during the season, earning her NFCA All-America honors. DiCarlo was named to the All-SEC First Team as a freshman after hitting nine of her 11 home runs against SEC opponents and notching 63 RBI on the year, the most of any freshman in the NCAA.

In his first season back, the Bulldog offense exploded, ranking 13th in the nation with a .343 batting average. Georgia finished 11th nationally with 7.21 runs per game and 18th with a .420 on-base percentage. Baldwin guided two NFCA All-Americans in Alex Hugo and Cortni Emanuel, as Hugo was first in the SEC and 12th in the NCAA with 22 home runs while Emanuel was eighth nationally in stolen bases and top-100 in batting average. Nine staples to the Bulldog lineup posted batting averages of .330 or higher at the end of the 2015 season. Once the season concluded, six Bulldog batters were named NFCA All-Region while four made it to an All-SEC Team.

Before returning to Athens, Baldwin was an assistant coach at North Carolina. Baldwin's primary responsibilities included developing the team's hitters and infielders. In 2014, Baldwin coached four .300 hitters and had three players hit double-digit home runs. Under Baldwin's guidance, three Tar Heels were named to the All-ACC Team, including one first-team selection and two second-team selections. In his first season, he helped nine Tar Heels finish the season batting over .300 while six had slugging percentages over .500.

Prior to his first stint at Georgia as volunteer coach, Baldwin spent 14 years coaching Division I baseball. Baldwin was an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Michigan State from 2006-08. Baldwin's first recruiting class at Michigan State matriculated a Freshman All-American and multiple draft picks. His second recruiting class was ranked the top recruiting class in the Big Ten and was ranked top 50 in the country by Baseball America. His third recruiting class also produced a Freshman All-American and became the class with the most wins in school history.

Before Michigan State, Baldwin was the assistant head baseball coach at Dartmouth College from 2003-05 after serving as the assistant coach from 1999-2003. At Dartmouth College, he was the recruiting coordinator, travel manager, eligibility coordinator, and worked with fundraising and alumni relations. Baldwin was the hitting and fielding coach, coordinated team defense, and was the third base coach, helping the team to Dartmouth's first Red Rolfe Division Titles in 2000, 2001, and 2004.

Baldwin was the assistant coach at Butler University from 1994-99, and was the head coach of the Decatur Blues, of the Central Illinois Collegiate League, in 1999. At Butler, Baldwin was the hitting coach, coached the infielders and catchers, and coordinated team defense. He helped lead the team to three MCC titles (1996, 1998, and 1999), which were the first in the history of the program.

A native of Bloomington, Indiana, Baldwin graduated from Butler in 1995 with a degree in finance. He was a four-year starter at catcher for Butler. In 1994, he served as a team captain for the Bulldogs and earned All-MCC honors.

In addition to coaching, Baldwin served as the operations director at Camp Weequahic from 2009-12.

Baldwin and his wife Suzanne have four children: Ella, Abby, Brady, and Katie.

ASSISTANT COACH

FIFTH SEASON | LSU, 2013

With a career that boasts accolades of two-time National Fastpitch Coaches Association All-American honors and the top draft pick in the National Pro Fastpitch Draft, former LSU standout Rachele Fico joined the Georgia softball staff as an assistant coach prior to the 2016 season.

The 2019 season saw great success in the circle for the Bulldogs' pitching staff. In all, Georgia recorded 18 total shutouts, the second-most in the SEC and 13th-best in NCAA softball. From Feb. 16-23, the Bulldogs tossed five-consecutive shutouts. Georgia concluded the season with a 2.54 team ERA. The trio of Mary Wilson Avant, Kylie Bass, and Alley Cutting shared the pitching duties in 2019 with less than six innings pitched separating the three.

Following the 2019 season in Athens, Fico pitched her final season in the NPF for the Chicago Bandits. In her last campaign, she recorded a 13-4 record in 17 appearances with a 1.62 ERA in 69 innings. She fanned 62 total hitters. On July 20 at home in Rosemont, Illinois, Fico recorded her first professional perfect game in a 5-0 win over the Aussie Peppers.

In 2018, Fico guided senior All-American Brittany Gray to being the NCAA ERA leader. Gray's season was cut short due to injury; however, her 0.48 ERA through 20 appearances and 102 innings stood as the best in college softball. Avant and Bass combined for a 27-8 record in the circle. As a staff, Georgia posted a 1.86 team ERA, finishing 13th nationally and fourth in the Southeastern Conference. The Bulldogs posted 22 shutouts in 2018, including two shutouts each of No. 7 Tennessee and Arkansas and also recorded six-straight shutouts, tying the program record, early in the 2018 campaign.

Gray was selected as the 14th pick of the 2018 NPF draft by the Beijing Shougang Eagles. She became the 12th Bulldog ever to be drafted in the NPF and was the highest pick out of Georgia since Chelsea Wilkenson (14th, 2016).

Following the 2018 season in Athens, Fico played her first season for the Chicago Bandits, her sixth season in the National Pro Fastpitch league. Fico shined in her first season with the Bandits, compiling a team-best seven wins over 41.2 innings of work in the circle. The right-hander ranked fourth among all NPF pitchers with a sparkling 0.51 ERA.

Under Fico's tutelage, Gray ranked among one of the top pitchers in the SEC during the 2017 campaign. The junior held opponents to a .190 batting average in 168 innings of work in the circle. She recorded her second-straight season of 100+ strikeouts, finishing with 134.

In her first year with the Bulldogs, Fico helped the pitching staff to a 2.27 ERA, as the team collected 46 wins. Leading the way was NFCA All-Region selection Chelsea Wilkinson, who led the SEC with 28 victories, including a shutout win in game one of the Gainesville Super Regional to guide the Bulldogs to the program's third Women's College World Series appearance. Along with Wilkinson's 219 strikeouts, Brittany Gray notched 100+ strikeouts on the season while Kylie Bass sported a 1.25 ERA, one of the best in the nation.

Fico served as an assistant coach at top-25 program South Alabama during the 2015 season where the Jaguars took the Sun Belt Conference crown and advanced to its fourth-straight NCAA Regional. Under Fico's guidance, the USA pitching staff held a 2.51 ERA that was top 30 in the NCAA while the trio of pitchers was each in the top 150 individually.

Outside of ERA, Fico helped freshman Devin Brown rank fourth nationally in strikeouts per seven innings (10.9) and senior Farish Beard finish seventh in the NCAA in hits allowed per seven innings (4.04). Beard and freshman Kalen McGill earned All-SBC honors.

The Oxford, Connecticut, native was the No. 1 overall draft pick out of college, playing five seasons with the NPF's Akron Racers. An All-NPF Team selection in 2014, Fico has pitched over 310 innings on her way to 28 wins during her professional career.

While at LSU, Fico was a two-time NFCA First Team All-American, three-time NFCA All-South Region First Team member, and three-time All-Southeastern Conference honoree. Fico still holds the record for most strikeouts in a game, tallying 22 against Mississippi State on Mar. 8, 2013.

During her freshman season with the Tigers in 2010, Fico was named SEC Co-Freshman of the Year in addition to making the All-SEC Freshman and Defensive Team lists. A year later, she led her club to the 2011 NCAA College Station Regional where the Tigers ultimately fell to Syracuse, but not before the right-handed hurler earned a spot on the All-Regional Team behind an 18-strikeout performance against the Orange, a feat which tied for second-most in LSU history.

Fico also brings Women's College World Series experience after leading the Tigers to Oklahoma City as a junior in 2012 when she earned both wins over No. 9 national seed Missouri at the NCAA Columbia Super Regional. Prior to that, she was unanimously named the NCAA College Station Regional MVP after compiling back-to-back shutouts versus Texas State and No. 8 national seed Texas A&M.

Fico completed her collegiate career among LSU's top-five in appearances (149), starts (104), complete games (82), innings pitched (774.0), wins (78), saves (8), opposing batting average (.195), shutouts (32), strikeouts (797) and strikeouts per seven innings (7.21).

UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA PRESIDENT

JERE W. MOREHEAD

Jere W. Morehead became the University of Georgia's 22nd President on July 1, 2013, having previously served as UGA's Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost since 2010.

President Morehead's career covers a wide range of faculty and administrative roles. Prior to 2010, he served UGA in several key administrative assignments, including Vice President for Instruction, Vice Provost for Academic Affairs, Associate Provost and Director of the Honors Program, and acting Executive Director of Legal Affairs. From 2003 to 2010, he served as the University's Faculty Athletics Representative. As UGA President, he also serves as Chair of the Georgia Athletic Association Board of Directors, Chair of the UGA Research Foundation, a UGA Foundation Trustee, and a UGA Real Estate Foundation Trustee.

President Morehead is a member of the Council on Competitiveness as well as the Committee of Research Intensive Public Universities convened by the Association of Public and Land-grant Universities. He also serves as a member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division I Presidential Forum, the Southeastern Conference (SEC) Executive Committee, and the SEC Working Group on Student-Athlete Conduct. He formerly chaired the SEC Working Group on Compliance, Enforcement, and Governance.

President Morehead is the Meigs Professor of Legal Studies in the Terry College of Business, where he has held a faculty appointment since 1986. He is a co-author of several books and book chapters, including The Legal and Regulatory Environment of Business, and he has published scholarly articles on legal topics ranging from export controls to jury selection. He has served as Editor-in-Chief of the American Business Law Journal and previously held several other editorial board positions with the ABLJ.

He directed the UGA Law School's Advocacy Program from 1986 to 1995 at a time when the moot court teams he coached won international, national, regional and state championships. In 1995, he served as a visiting professor of business law at the University of Michigan.

President Morehead has received several University-wide teaching awards, including the Josiah Meigs Award—UGA's highest honor for teaching excellence—the Richard B. Russell Award for Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching, the Teacher of the Year Award in the Terry College of Business, and the Lothar Tresp Outstanding Honors Professor Award. He also received the Distinguished Service Scroll Award, the Law School Alumni Association's highest honor, and has been included in Georgia Trend's list of Most Influential Georgians for six consecutive years.

Morehead is a native of Lakeland, Florida. He moved with his family to Atlanta as a teenager and enrolled at Georgia State University after graduating from high school at the age of 16. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in 1977. He entered the University of Georgia School of Law in 1977, where he graduated with a juris doctor degree at the age of 23 in 1980. After graduation, he served as an Assistant United States Attorney with the Department of Justice from 1980 to 1986. He is the first alumnus of UGA to serve as President since 1986.

J. REID PARKER DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

GREG McGARITY

Athens native and University of Georgia graduate Greg McGarity was named Director of Athletics at UGA on August 13, 2010, after serving 18 years in the athletic department at the University of Florida. Since that time, McGarity has emphasized exploring new ideas and initiatives designed to move the organization forward in all areas of competition, academics, service, and exceptional experiences for student-athletes and supporters.

McGarity oversees a 21-sport athletics program supported by a budget of $143 million. Since he became Director of Athletics, UGA teams have won six national championships, 20 SEC championships, and four SEC eastern division titles in football. Georgia's finish in the Learfield Directors' Cup, which annually measures athletic teams' success in NCAA championships, has been in the top 20 every year during his tenure including an eighth place finish in 2018.

McGarity has also been a standard bearer for academic achievement. Since his arrival, Georgia student-athletes have been the recipients of 18 NCAA Post Graduate Scholarships, 30 CoSIDA Academic All-American awards, three NCAA Top Ten honors, three SEC Boyd McWhoter Scholar-Athlete of the Year winners, and numerous other SEC honors.

In addition, McGarity has been at the forefront of facility expansion and renovation which has totaled over $115 million with more on the way. Construction projects during his tenure have included the $30 million William Porter Payne and Porter Otis Payne Indoor Athletic Facility, $63 million Sanford Stadium west end addition which features a new home locker room and recruiting facility, $7 million in improvements to Stegeman Coliseum and the Boyd Golf Center expansion, $12 million Foley Field (baseball) facility renovation and new scoreboards/video boards at baseball, softball and soccer.

Under McGarity's leadership fundraising has reached unprecedented heights. For the 2018 fiscal year, The Georgia Bulldog Club raised a record $80 million in cash and pledges to support UGA Athletics. In September of 2015 a new philanthropic giving arm was created, The Magill Society, which currently has over 900 members that have contributed more than $86 million to support athletic facility projects. The Scholarship Endowment has grown to over $41 million, and five coaching and administrative positions have been endowed.

He has served on the NCAA Division I Football Issues Committee and the NCAA National Letter of Intent Football Recruiting Group, and is currently serving on the SEC Fan Experience Working Group and the U.S. Tennis Association Athletic Director's Advisory Group.

At UF, he served as Executive Associate Athletic Director after serving as an Associate and Senior Associate AD. His duties included assisting with daily operations, assisting in preparation and approval of the annual budget, and extensive involvement in long-term planning, contracts, competition scheduling and employment searches.

McGarity was a letterman on the Bulldog tennis team and after graduation began his professional career at UGA holding positions as assistant sports information director, head women's tennis coach, and Assistant AD for facilities and event management.

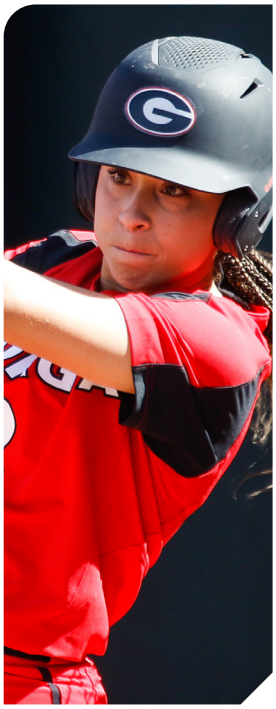
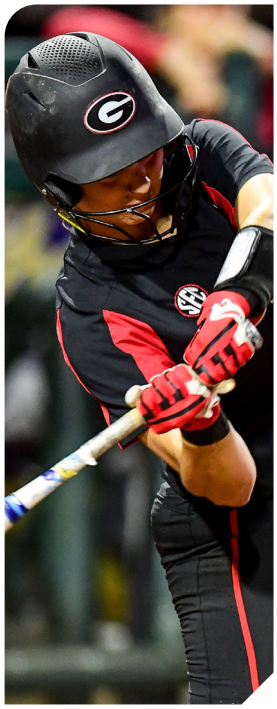
FIVE THINGS TO KNOW: LOOKING BACK AT 2019



GEORGIA FINISHES WITH ANOTHER 40-WIN SEASON AND 18TH-CONSECUTIVE NCAA REGIONAL APPEARANCE

The 2019 season saw Georgia conclude with a 42-19 record overall and a 12-12 record in Southeastern Conference play, the 17th 40-win season in the program's history. The Bulldogs also recorded the program's 1000th victory in 2019.

Georgia made its 18th-consecutive NCAA Regional appearance at #7 Minnesota. Georgia defeated Drake in extra innings then fell to the host Gophers. After defeating Drake again, the Bulldogs fell in the Regional final to the Gophers, who ultimately went on to appear in the Women's College World Series in Oklahoma City.

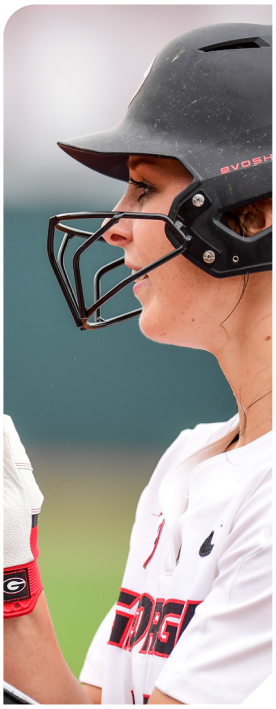


DICARLO TOPPLES CAREER RECORDS

Alyssa DiCarlo broke four of Georgia's career records in 2019, her final season in the Red & Black. In the March 10 game against Western Illinois at Jack Turner Stadium, DiCarlo became Georgia's new all-time home runs leader. In the first inning at Auburn (March 29), DiCarlo doubled down the left field line to plate CJ Landrum, breaking the career RBI record. The extra-base hits record fell in the series finale against Texas A&M (April 7) with a two-run home run in the first inning. Finally, she broke the total bases record with a home run in the seventh inning at South Carolina (April 27), that tied the game up when the Bulldogs were down to their final two outs.

THREE BULLDOGS EARN ALL-SEC HONORS

Alyssa DiCarlo was chosen by the league's head coaches as a First Team All-SEC performer. Ciara Bryan earned Second Team All-SEC accolades while rookie Lacey Fincher gained a spot on the Freshman All-SEC Team. DiCarlo, concluded her career as a four-time All-SEC performer, this is her third time on the First Team, earning Second Team as a sophomore in 2017. Bryan makes her debut on an all-conference team in 2019. Bryan was Georgia's top hitter in league play, hitting a team-best .310 while slugging .521 against conference opponents. In the field, Fincher began the season starting as the designated player before taking over duties at first base in early March. She's made appearances at short, behind the plate, and in the outfield throughout the season.



FINCHER HAS BREAKOUT ROOKIE CAMPAIGN

Lacey Fincher concluded her rookie season earning SEC All-Freshman Team accolades along with appearing on the top 25 list for the Schutts/NFCA Freshman of the Year list. Fincher appeared in all but one game and made 59 starts as a true freshman, 49 starts came at first base, 16 as the DP, and one start at each shortstop and right field and also saw time behind that plate as a sub. She finished with a second-best .318 batting average, knocking nine home runs and driving in 32 RBI. She slugged .561 with a .483 on-base clip and drew 49 walks, the second-most on the team.

DICARLO DRAFTED #4 PICK BY CHICAGO BANDITS

Shortstop Alyssa DiCarlo was drafted by the Chicago Bandits in the NPF Draft on Apr. 15. DiCarlo was taken as the fourth-overall pick of the 2019 NPF Draft. DiCarlo becomes the 14th player drafted out of Georgia in the history of the NPF Draft. 2019 is the fourth-straight year a Bulldog has been chosen in the draft and the sixth in that span. The Bandits have drafted three players from Georgia in the history of the draft, the first being Megan Wiggins in 2011. DiCarlo will join Georgia assistant coach Rachele Fico on the Bandits along with former Bulldog Kristyn Sandberg.

THE CIRCLE OF HONOR

NICOLE BARBER is Georgia softball's first and only Circle of Honor inductee, the highest honor bestowed upon a student-athlete at Georgia. Barber was the Bulldogs' centerfielder from 2001-04. She still holds the NCAA record with 257 career stolen bases including swiping 73-consecutive bags, also an NCAA record. Her 379 career hits is an SEC record while ranking in the top 10 in batting average, triples, runs, and fielding percentage as a centerfielder. She was three-time All-American and four-time All-SEC honoree for Georgia. Barber played in 278 games of her career, going 204-74 as a Bulldog with 70 SEC wins.
